

Georgia Young Composers Festival

Presented by

DeKalb Choral Guild

Harmonia et Concordia

Calling all Young
Choral Music
Composers!

The Georgia Young Composers Festival seeks to recognize talented young composers of choral music in Georgia's high schools, colleges and universities. The inaugural edition of the festival is now accepting compositions from students across the state. All entries will receive comments from a committee of professional musicians.

From the compositions received, the Festival judges will select finalists in the high school and collegiate divisions to attend the festival weekend at the Georgia State University School of Music. The Finalists' works will receive their premieres from an accomplished chorus in front of a live audience and have a professional recording. The winning composer in each division will receive a $1,000 cash award.
