

Season Sponsor Program Questions and Answers

Q: What is the Season Sponsorship program?

A: The DeKalb Choral Guild's Season Sponsor program involves individuals and businesses in producing exciting musical events in the community. Through donations to the Guild, season sponsors help to fund everything from staff salaries to publicity to concert halls to guest artists.

Q: As an individual, what are the benefits of becoming a season sponsor?

A: Individual sponsorship donations form an important core of the Season Sponsor Program. At the different donation levels, individuals can receive benefits such as concert tickets, mentions in the concert programs and the Guild's web site, the opportunity to include a business card or personal greeting advertisement in the program, and the opportunity to dedicate a concert in honor or in memory of someone. At the highest level, you can even receive a performance from our Chamber Singers. The Season Sponsor application form lists a summary of these benefits. In addition to these benefits, you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have provided an outlet for the arts in your community.

Q: Is my season sponsorship tax-deductible?

A: Yes. The Guild is a 501 c(3) non-profit organization, so your sponsorship is considered a donation and is tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law.

Q: Can my company match my season sponsorship?

A: Yes. As a non-profit organization, the Guild qualifies for matching grant programs offered by employers. The attached list contains over 300 companies with matching grant programs. The Guild will be happy to provide any documentation you need to apply for a matching grant.

Q: Why should my business become a Season Sponsor?

A: The Guild offers a unique opportunity for exposing your company to great audiences. At the different sponsorship levels, your company can place advertisements as simple as a business card or as big as a full page ad in our concert programs. At higher levels, your company can put its branding on the Guild's concert programs, so your logo can appear on the programs, the posters and in our audience mailing. At the highest sponsorship level, your company can receive a performance from our Chamber Singers at your company's event.

Q: Since you mentioned audiences, what kinds of audiences attend your concerts and events?

A: Though based in DeKalb County, the Guild attracts audiences from across the metropolitan Atlanta area. The Guild's audience tends to be highly educated and musically savvy. We see a mix of "regulars" as well as new people who are attending their first Guild concert. The audience is evenly divided between men and women and the ages range from teenagers and college students to retirees in their golden years. We see around 200 faces for each concert.

Q: What types of publicity does the Guild use to promote its concerts?

A: The Guild publicizes its concerts through audience mailings, electronic mailings, posters, the Guild's website, public service advertisements on public radio, notices in the announcement sections of local media, and occasional print advertisements.

Q: How do I apply to become a Season Sponsor?

A: Attached to this document you will find a season sponsor form you can fill out and send to the Guild. The mailing address is on the sponsor form along with information about the format for program advertisements.

Q: What sizes are available for advertisements in the concert programs?

A: At the "Section Leader" level ($100 - $249), you can place a standard business card sized ad, 2 inches tall by 3.5 inches wide.

At the "Accompanist" level ($250 - $499), you can place a half-page ad, 3.75 inches tall by 4.5 inches wide.

At the "Conductor" level and higher ($500+), you can place a full page ad, 7.5 inches tall by 4.5 inches wide.

Q: How long will my advertisement run in the concert programs?

A: Once you start your season sponsorship, your ad will appear in all the concert programs for the rest of the concert season.

Q: In what formats can you accept concert advertisements?

A: The Guild can accept advertisements in GIF, JPEG, TIFF or PDF image formats. The Guild can also accept a photo-ready copy of the advertisement for scanning, which can be especially useful for business cards or other paper ads. The program pages are not printed in color.

Q: What are the deadlines for applying for a season sponsorship?

A: The Guild accepts new sponsors at any time. To have your advertisement appear in the concert programs this year, you should send your sponsorship form and advertisement to the Guild by the following dates:

Concert Name	Deadline	Concert Date
Choral Music Through the Ages: 1550-1750	October 16, 2009	October 30, 2009
Home for the Holidays!	November 23, 2009	December 10, 2009

2009-2010 -- 32nd Season Concert Schedule

Choral Music Through the Ages – 1550 to 1750

We kick off our 32nd season 'when' choral music all began. Join us for an evening of music progressing through this time period and inspired by this time. Selections include Monteverdi's Cantate Domino and Cruda Amarilli, Gibbons' This is the record of John, Byrd's Ave Verum Corpus, and Bach's Furchte dick nicht.

Friday, October 30, 2009, 7:30 PM
St. Luke Presbyterian Church, 1978 Mount Vernon Road, Dunwoody

Home for the Holidays! with the Peachtree Symphonic Winds

Two wonderful organizations come together for one great show! After a 4 year hiatus, the Guild joins the fantastic musicians from the Peachtree Symphonic Winds to present music that celebrates the holidays taking place in our community. This concert will provide a great introduction to choral music for young folks while providing "seasoned" choral audiences with some musical treats as well.

Thursday, December 10, 2009, 8:00 PM
Holy Cross Catholic Church, 3773 Chamblee Tucker Road, Chamblee

Choral Music Through the Ages – 1750 to 1950

Join us as we continue our progression through time. Conductor Bryan Black leads the Guild through one of the most robust and varied times in choral history in this exciting program. From Telemann's Laudate Jehovah to Schubert's Lebenslust and concluding with Thompson's Ye Shall Have A Song and spirituals by Dawson, this concert will be a true tour de force of choral music from the 18th to the 20th centuries.

Saturday, March 6, 2010, 7:30 PM
St. Bartholomew's Church, 1970 LaVista Road NE, Atlanta

Choral Music Through the Ages – 1950 to the Present

The Guild celebrates the current state of choral music along with a look into the future with this exciting program. From the African sounds of Grau's Kasar mei la gaji and the unique nature of Tennenhouse's Iraqi Peace Song to Effinger's Four Pastorales and works that have been commissioned by the Guild, including the Martin Luther King Jr. Mass by local composer Sharon Willis and The Beatitudes by Czech composer Jiri Laburda, this promises to be a very exciting evening. So exciting, in fact, that the Guild will be performing it twice!

Friday, April 30, 2010, 7:30 PM, TBD
Saturday, May 1, 2010, 7:30 PM, TBD

The DeKalb Choral Guild Annual Fundraiser

Did you miss one of our concerts earlier in the year? Wished you could have heard a piece of music one more time? Well this is your chance! Join the Guild for a few of our favorite selections from this year's concert season. In addition to the choral program, the evening features an array of wonderful food and drink, a Silent Auction, and a Live Auction, all to raise money for your DeKalb Choral Guild.
